"BILLY" MOORE SIGNED.

North End Team Gets Norfolk Collegians' Pitcher.
Manager William Nexsen, of the North End team of the Peninsula League, announced last night that he had signed "Billy" Moore, the young pitcher who did the twirling for the Norfolk Collegians in yesterday morning's game on the Casino diamond.

Moore showed a great deal of class yesterday as a slab artist and if he can hold the same pace, he will be a most valuable addition to the pitching corps of the local team.

With Moore, Reynolds and Simpson to do the pitching the North End team will be as well or better off in that line than any other team in the league.

WESTERN SPEED MARVEL.

King's Daughter Wins Commonwealth Handicap at Sheephead.

SHEEPSHEAD, BAY, N. Y., July 5.—Before a crowd of 15,000 persons, King's Daughter, a speed marvel of the West, easily won the Commonwealth Handicap, a 1-1/4 mile race, at Sheephead Bay today. With Fitz Herbert and Montgomery withdrawals, King's Daughter was a heavily played favorite, being backed down from 2 to 1 to 5 to 1 at the close.

Effendi was the opening favorite, but he was the last one to leave the barrier but she dashed into the lead in the first sixteenth of a mile. She continued to increase her advantage all the way and at the end won by four lengths. Effendi followed the pace to the stretch where he stopped, and Affliction caught him, tiring, and was an easy second, six lengths before Effendi.

California King, 4 to 5 favorite won the Independence steeplechase.

SOUTHERN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Untimely Shower Interferes With Championship Singles.

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, Ga., July 5.—Owing to an untimely shower, the preliminary matches in singles of the Southern Tennis Tournament were slow in starting this afternoon. A forty minute rain made the courts heavy and but few matches were completed.

Carter, of Atlanta, defeated De Bays, of New Orleans, in two straight sets, 6-4 and 6-3. Notwithstanding his decisive defeat, De Bays gave Carter an exciting day, nearly every game going to deuce.

Mansfield, of Atlanta, defeated Porter, of Kirdwood, 6-4, 6-3. Grant, of Atlanta, had a 2-0 on Taylor, of Macon, when rain stopped this match. It will be resumed tomorrow.

Nat Thompson, of Atlanta, is the title holder in the singles.

One of the players reckoned among the possible survivors for the final with Thornton is Doyle, of Washington, who gets into his first game tomorrow with T. R. Pell, of New York.

MINISTER KILLED WHILE TRYING TO MAKE PEACE

Rev. E. L. Langley Falls Fatally at Son's Feet During Pistol Duel.

GRAYSON, GA., July 5.—Much excitement prevails in the community over the fatal injury of Rev. E. L. Langley, who was today shot while trying to separate his son, Rose Langley and J. E. Webb who were engaged in a fight.

Webb and young Langley fought a desperate duel with pistols. Each received two wounds of a serious nature.

The minister in attempting to act as peacemaker came within the range of the flying bullets and fell at his son's feet mortally wounded.

NOT A LINCOLN PHRASE.

"Government for the People and by the People" a Virginian's Product.

CUMBERLAND, MD., July 5.—Mr. Jacob Brown, who recently celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of his admission to the bar of Allegany county and who is yet a practitioner, active mentally and physically at 85 years, says the authorship of the expression, "a government of the people, by the people and for the people," attributed to Lincoln, remains unknown or at least is in doubt. Mr. Brown said:

"The great and good Lincoln is supposed by some to be the author, as in his first inaugural or first message to Congress, he used it and again in his almost devout speech at Gettysburg in 1863. This fundamental sentiment is much like the great and original mind of Lincoln. Still, it was not originally from his mind and lips. The fact was and it had its origin long before his entrance into the national life. In 1845 and 1846 I was a student at Washington College in Pennsylvania and belonged to a literary society there which held weekly meetings. One night this very question was the subject of investigation and discussion and the consensus of opinion was that Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, was the author. This was and still is my opinion."

USES KNIFE ON MAN WHO KEPT HIM FROM PEEPING

Wingfield Bolling Resents Being Chased Away From Hole in Baseball Park Fence.

Because Charles Vick a negro, would not let him peep through the canvas fence at a negro ball game in progress yesterday afternoon at Madison avenue and Twenty-third street, Wingfield Bolling, also colored, it is said, "told" for the man later and proceeded to carve him up with a large pocket knife. Several of the negro ball-players came upon the men while they were fighting, and they captured Bolling and held him until Patrolman Padgett could be summoned.

The officer took the negro in charge and he was locked up at the station house on the charge of felonious cutting.

Vick was seriously, but not fatally cut by Bolling. He had two ugly looking gashes, one under the right arm and the other in the right side. The wounded man was taken to the office of Dr. Dickinson, colored, and the physician sewed the wounds up. Later Vick was moved to his home.

It seems that Vick was appointed one of the guards to see that no negroes peeped through the fence at the game between two rival negro nines. Vick armed himself with a stick and proceeded to make the rounds of the outside of the fence. He came upon Bolling and chased him away.

It Takes Two Are You One of Them?

If,

Of the two people it takes to make a bargain, you are ONE, how much would it be worth to you to find the other one?

Would it be worth the cost of a classified ad? Would it be worth the cost of a small, but determined, "campaign of want advertising?"

The "other one" necessary to "make a bargain" is found, in nine cases out of ten, through advertising—often through want advertising; and, in this city, usually through want advertising in this newspaper.

The "Other One" watches the WANT ADS. pretty closely—but, of course, has to be convinced. If your offer is "right" that will be an easy task.
